

Charter for the Well-being Of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Trans people Seniors

Preamble

Whereas seniors who are sexual minorities can present a high level of vulnerability;

Whereas those who work with lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) seniors or spend time with them must contribute to their positive treatment;

Whereas homophobia and transphobia are forms of discrimination within the meaning of the Quebec Charter of Human Rights and Freedoms and the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms;

In light of this, the present charter suggests that people working with seniors or spending time with them adhere to the following principles:

- 1. Ensure that LGBT seniors receive equal treatment, free of any demonstration of homophobia or transphobia.
- 2. Ensure that LGBT seniors are provided a homophobia and transphobia-free environment.
- 3. Take any necessary measures to ensure that people who work with or spend time with seniors adopt a positive attitude towards homosexuality and transidentity.
- 4. Respect seniors' choice to reveal or not their sexual orientation or their transidentity.
- 5. Ensure that information obtained about the sexual orientation or transidentity of a senior remains confidential, unless they have given their consent to reveal such information.
- 6. Take any necessary measures to discourage demonstrations of homophobia or transphobia, whether verbal, psychological or physical, including gestures, teasing or insinuations.

- 7. Support the efforts undertaken by seniors who are victims of homophobia or transphobia on the part of workers or other beneficiaries.
- 8. Exhibit signs of openness toward seniors who are isolated due to their sexual orientation or transidentity.
- 9. Encourage respect and open-mindedness in beneficiaries with respect to LGBT seniors.
- 10. Include the fight against homophobia and transphobia in training programs intended for people working with seniors.
- 11. Refrain from making assumptions about a person's sexual orientation and respect their gender expression or identity.
